Green team nearly pull off whitewash

By Malcolm Pein

THREE teams share the lead in the National Chess League after the second weekend at Abergavenny.

The fourth round saw top seeds
Slough and Midland Monarchs win convincingly against Guildford, and BCM respectively to reach 7/8; but the star performance came from Wood Green. who demolished Hertford 7.5-0-5 tor join the leaders. The match-mearly ended in the league's first. 8-0 whitewash, but Mark Rubery, former South African No 1 spoiled a winning position.

GMcTony Kosten, now resident in France, scored 1/2 for Slough on a trace visit to Britain. He defeated GM Jonathan Mestel and IM Andrew Kinsman, Richard Bates had another good result on top board for Richmond, drawing with GM John Emms of Wood Green and defeating IM John Cooper of South Wales Dragons. .
